By law the maximum amount an individual may contribute is $2,700 for the primary and $2,700 for the general election. Contributions are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Federal law requires us to ask for and collect the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer for each individual whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 per calendar year. Contributions by corporations, foreign nationals (non-green card holders), labor unions and federal government contractors are prohibited. Contributions are subject to federal contribution limits.
