

GALA & ART AUCTION

JUNE 9, 2018 EFFIE YEAW NATURE CENTER

benefiting ARNHA & the
Effie Yeaw Nature Center

WELCOME

Welcome to the ninth annual ARNHA Art Gala!

The Art Where Wild Things Are Spring Gala is the largest fundraiser supporting the nature based programs and services provided at the Effie Yeaw Nature Center. I am pleased to recognize Pat Mahony and Randy Getz as this year's Honorary Event Chairs; Boyd Gavin and Marcy Friedman, the judges for the juried art show, and Eileen Javora, our Master of Ceremonies. This Gala would not be possible without the work of artist and art show coordinator David Peterson of the Sacramento Fine Arts Center, and the talented artists who are donating a portion of the proceeds from the sale of their artwork tonight.

Over 18,000 Sacramento area school children participate in the Nature Center's programs each year. These kids get to experience interactions with live animals, develop an understanding of ecosystems and dependencies, and immerse in a truly wild and natural environment. For some, it is their first time in such a setting. Seeing a wild deer or encountering a resident raptor can be life-changing—the beginning of a life-long connection to our world. Nature Center staff and volunteers get to witness these amazing moments every day and know how important they are. We hope the examples on page 7 inspire you as they have us.

Enjoy this evening and know that your generosity will benefit thousands of Sacramentans who will gain knowledge of nature's wonders through the quality programs that bring them face to face with the natural world. As Henry David Thoreau said, "In wildness is the preservation of the world."

Best regards and enjoy,

Joey Johnson

President, American River Natural History Association

AUCTION RULES & PROCEDURES

Auction closings and checkout: The Silent Auction will have two closings (6:25 and 6:45) and be followed by the Live Auction. The auctioneer will announce the closing of each section. If you placed the winning bid on any of the items, you may pay for your items after all Silent and Live Auctions have closed. At the end of the live auction, you have a Last Chance opportunity to purchase any of the remaining silent auction items by writing your bid on the bid sheet and alerting an auction worker to bring your paperwork and art to the cashiering area.

All purchases and art pickup will be made in the Nature Center assembly building. Copies of bid sheets are filed with the cashiers to expedite checkout. Winning bidders are responsible for the safety of their art from the moment of purchase.

GENERAL RULES

1. Upon entry, each guest will be given a bid card. To bid in the silent auction, simply write your bid number on the silent auction bid form. To bid in the live auction, hold your bid card up high with the number toward the auctioneer. By bidding in the live or silent auctions each bidder agrees to these auction rules.
2. A bid acknowledged by the live auctioneer is a legal contract to purchase the item. As well, in the silent auction, designation of the bid you have written by the silent auction official as the top bid is a legal contract to purchase that silent auction item.
3. Top bidders may pay for their items at the auction cashiering stations, which open for regular service at the conclusion of the live auction. Payment in full, however, is mandatory at the auction.
4. Auction items will be awarded to one purchaser only. The top bid amount for an auction item will not be split among bidders who may have agreed to pay a portion of the top bid amount. A purchaser who wishes to split the payment for an auction item must collect the individual payments from the other bidder(s). Then either present those payments to the cashiers at the time the purchaser pays for the top bidder's purchases, or accept those payments as a partial reimbursement for the total payment the purchaser has made.
5. All purchases are final and there will be no exchanges or refunds on items unless otherwise noted.
6. The auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid which is a minimal fractional advance over the prior bid.
7. We will gladly accept your payment by currency, personal check, Visa or MasterCard. We are a 501(c)3 charitable organization and your payments are tax deductible as a charitable contribution, only to the extent provided by law. Generally you may deduct as a charitable contribution the amount you pay above the fair market value of the item.

AUCTION RULES & PROCEDURES

8. Unless otherwise noted, all goods and services must be claimed and used within one year of the auction date.
9. The auctioneer reserves the right to add or withdraw, without notice, items to or from the auction.
10. The purchaser assumes the responsibility to remove purchases from the auction premises.
11. Reservations for the raffled vacation accommodations must be mutually arranged with the donor unless otherwise noted.
12. Each person issued a bid number (bidder) assumes all risks and hazards related to the auction and items obtained at the auction. Each bidder agrees to hold harmless from any liability arising there from ARNHA, its elected and appointed officials, members and employees, the auctioneer(s), the auction company and its agents and employees, the event organizers, sponsors, and /or volunteers connected with the auction.
13. Fair market value is an estimate of the retail value. We depend on the donor to give us a reasonable estimate of the item's retail value.

SILENT AUCTION

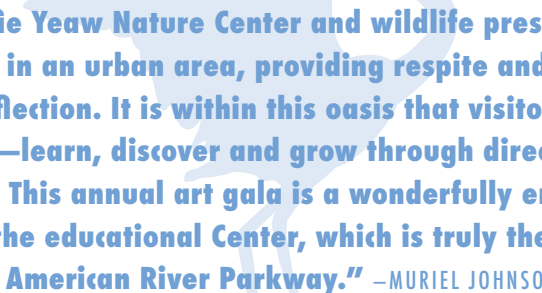

1. Items offered in the silent auction will have silent auction bid forms attached to them or on a table nearby. You may bid by simply writing your bid number on the form opposite the amount you want to bid. We ask you to press hard as you are making three copies.
2. You do not have to take the next available bid amount, but may skip ahead on the form to find the amount you really want to bid. The next bidder must bid a higher amount than you did to be successful.
3. If you really want an item, just write your bid number opposite the amount labeled Guaranteed Purchase Price and you own the item. Once you write your bid number on the Guaranteed Purchase Price line, the bidding on that item is concluded.
4. You may bid on any item in the silent auction until the section is closed. Bidding for items in the silent auction sections will close at the time posted. A silent auction official will circle the top bid number and amount. You can see if you are the successful purchaser by looking at a copy (pink) of the silent auction bid form which is left in its place after the section is closed.

AUCTION RULES & PROCEDURES

5. At the end of the live auction, you have a Last Chance opportunity to bid on any of the remaining silent auction items. All artwork purchases made on the event grounds must go through the bid process and the event cashiers.

LIVE AUCTION

1. You may preview the live auction from the time the doors open until the start of the live auction. Please feel free to come right up to the display of the live auction items, even up onto the live auction stage. We want you to have adequate time and opportunity to see the excellent quality of the live auction items. Also please note any restrictions, limitations, sizes, etc.
2. To ensure for you that the auction concludes at a reasonable hour, the live auction will continue without intermission until all items have been auctioned.
3. You may bid in the live auction by holding your bid card up high with the number toward the auctioneer.

“The Effie Yeaw Nature Center and wildlife preserve exist as an oasis in an urban area, providing respite and opportunity for quiet reflection. It is within this oasis that visitors—especially children—learn, discover and grow through direct outdoor experience. This annual art gala is a wonderfully enjoyable way to support the educational Center, which is truly the jewel of the American River Parkway.” –MURIEL JOHNSON

ABOUT OUR ORGANIZATIONS

SACRAMENTO FINE ARTS CENTER

CONTRIBUTING TO THE CULTURAL LIFE OF THE SACRAMENTO COMMUNITY

Established April, 1986, The Sacramento Fine Arts Center (SFAC) is a nonprofit corporation, whose mission is to contribute to the cultural life of our community. Established jointly by independent art clubs, it is dedicated to the creation and presentation of the visual arts. The Center is entirely self-supporting and operated by volunteers. Its operation is made possible by memberships, contributions, sales and rentals of art work, and numerous community fundraisers.

AMERICAN RIVER NATURAL HISTORY ASSOCIATION

The American River Natural History Association (ARNHA) is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1981 to support educational and interpretive activities in the American River Parkway in cooperation with the Effie Yeaw Nature Center. With the help of donors, ARNHA has provided 37 years of critical fundraising, volunteer and advisory support for the Nature Center's mission to introduce people to the beauty and diversity of the Sacramento region.

In keeping with its mission of Bringing People to Nature...and Nature to People, ARNHA publishes books exploring the natural and human history of the American River in the Sacramento region. Their dedication and tireless work comes from the belief that environmental education motivates citizens to love, protect and preserve natural areas of our community, which benefits the mental and physical well-being of all.

ABOUT THE EFFIE YEAW NATURE CENTER

A natural wildlife oasis in an urban area, the Effie Yeaw

Nature Center is set among 100 acres of oak woodland along the American River Parkway. At this award-winning environmental and cultural education facility, visitors learn about our region's natural history plus the importance of conserving and protecting our most precious natural resources.

Over the last 40 years the Center has provided educational programs and quiet respite from urban life to more than 1.6 million visitors. Last year alone, the Nature Center:

- Presented 572 educational programs to 18,400 Sacramento-area students,
- Provided nearly one-third of those programs at no cost to schools serving low-income families, through the Urban Nature Program,
- Presented 98 weekend educational programs at no cost to the public,
- And served more than 90,000 people through its Visitor Center, museum and nature preserve.

As a designated non-profit, the Nature Center depends on grants and contributions from donors to fund these programs and services. With your support tonight, we can ensure that valuable environmental education and this beautiful wildlife oasis remain accessible for everyone in our community for years to come!

“Dear Effie Yeaw, Thank you for the best field trip. We will never forget the day we had... when we saw the Canada Geese land on the water it was amazing. Thank you for this wonderful adventure. I really like hiking—that was my first time. This is the only field trip when we get to go into the water... I like it when we found a dragonfly nymph in the lagoon. The field trip was awesome...Thank you for all of this fun!” –Daniel

He has exhibited work in multiple shows at the John Natsoulas Gallery, Caldwell Snyder Gallery in San Francisco, and has work in the permanent collection of the Crocker Museum in Sacramento, California.

MARCY FRIEDMAN

Marcy Friedman is a serious painter, emerging from the creative shadows in Sacramento. Her work, influenced by such greats as teacher Wayne Thiebaud, is entirely fresh, original and captivating.
